Mark's Remarks

What a Summer! I can't remember when I've had more stuff going on. What with me visiting other people, other people visiting me and the Pan Am Games to attend and work at, not to mention my new job, it's a wonder I've been able to get anything done around the house or with the Porsche Club. But I better get used to it.

Next summer is going to be a repeat...with a small twist. Next summer's activities will be Porsche related.

We've got two special events coming up next year to go along with our normal calendar of events...all tied into the Indianapolis 500, of course. First, we are going to be hosting the Spring Executive Council Meeting in April, then we'll have plenty to do with our 500 event.

A general organizational meeting for these events is coming up this October. Bob Snider, General Chairman, is conducting the meeting at the Scandia Apartments Clubhouse. More information about this meeting appears elsewhere in the CIRcular.

I encourage everyone in our Region to take an active role in this event! Not only is it going to be one of the biggest we've ever put together, it's also going to be a LOT of fun!! Be a part of the excitement and get involved early.

Because of my busy schedule, I haven't been able to participate in the past couple of events. I've missed some good ones, too!! And, I feel really bad. I enjoy Porsche People and Porsche events. I promise not to miss any more.

Well, I've got to get off to some Pan Am Volleyball now. See you at the next event!

EDITORIAL (or another Mark's remarks)

You should notice some changes in this month's issue. Mark Thompson has decided that the pressures on his sanity and home life doing a monthly publication and carrying out his duties as president are too much (actually it just interfered with his volleyball).

My wife and I will now have the task of publishing the CIRcular. We will be keeping some familiar things and trying some new things and ask your indulgence while we sort things out.

We need your help. Since we are already in the process change, please let us know if there is something you would like to see. Your input and suggestions, something you are probably not asked for much any more, will help us know if we are reaching our audience.

We are not letting Thompson off the hook entirely. He will still be a main contributor and photographer.

Our goals are first, not to work too hard and second, to keep you informed. We hope to accomplish both in a publication you can be proud of while keeping up the high standards for CIRcular set by Thompson and those before him.

SEPTEMBER 19, 20

All Porsche owners are invited to join the Central Indiana Region of PCA at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway on Saturday, Sept. 19th. PCA is one of about 50 car clubs involved with this event. Last year, there were 1,100 cars on display...ranging from very early antiques up through the latest model Porsche, Ferrari, Jaguar, and more. If you like cars, you'll love this event. Cars can be entered for judging or for exhibit only. All Porsche entries, judged or exhibit, will be parked in a group. After the activities at the track, Porsche people will have cocktails and dinner at the Wharf Restaurant. Sunday, there will be touring laps of the 500 track, high wheel bicycle races, and for Porsche People, an SCCA. You may come one day or both.

Winery Tour and Kentucky Octoberfest

Saturday, October 24

The fourth annual trip to the Huber Winery, near Salem, Indiana, will once again be tied into the Kentucky Region Octoberfest. We have been invited to join our southern friends after our winery visit for dinner, a people's choice concours, and door prizes as an optional way to spend our tour.

At the winery, we can sample wines or have cider and soft drinks. Snacks and sandwiches are also available as is the purchase of bottle wine. In the nearby building there is an open market for fruits, vegetables, preserves, in addition to the craft shop in the main building.

We will leave Indy traveling separately or in convoy to the winery, and conclude our tour there or optionally continue to the Octoberfest site in the Louisville area about a 45 minute drive away. Be prepared for a German style outdoor picnic with Bratwurst, beer, etc., etc., etc. The schedule below is in Indianapolis time.

Convoy start: 9 a.m. sharp! Registration opens at 8:30 a.m. at the Kentucky Fried Chicken parking lot next to the Signature Inn, I65 and exit 103 (Southport Rd.) south of Indy. Complete route instructions will be given out there or mailed to you if you want to make your own way to the winery. A stamped, self addressed envelope should accompany your entry for the instructions.

Winery visit: Plan to arrive at 12:30 p.m.

Octoberfest: Depart winery at 2:30 p.m. for arrival at the meeting site before 3:30 p.m.

CIR co-hosts 356 classic show and swap

In a prelude to Porsche's Indianapolis activities next year, CIR will be hosting the 356 Registry event at the Speedway this October 16-18. The event will feature a number of automotive and social activities.

More than 200 Porsches (over one hundred 356 models) are anticipated, with an anticipated total attendance of 400-plus Porsche enthusiasts.

And why not? Not only will there be a concours to show off each Porsche in the wooded 4th turn infield of the Speedway Track and a rally and a Porsche-only swap meet, but there will also be the opportunity for owners to pilot their own Porsche around the famous brickyard where drivers such as Ray Harroun, Wilbur Shaw, Jim Clark, Bobby and Al Unser, and A.J. Foyt have all gained fame and notoriety.

The festivities begin Friday night with a German Oktoberfest, featuring a German band and cuisine. Concurrent with the Oktoberfest will be a scale model and literature swap meet. A goodie store (logically stocked with Porsche goodies) and hospitality room will be open for those otherwise unoccupied.

Saturday will dawn to the sound of toothbrushes on trim and wash cloths on wheels as preparations are made for what will be the largest people's choice Porsche concours to date. The competition will be held on the Speedway grounds with attendance limited to those registered for the event. A catered lunch will be served and the early afternoon will be spent drooling over (or removing drool marks from) the finest examples of German engineering in the world.

Capping off the afternoon will be an opportunity few will want to miss. All Porsche owners will be allowed two laps on the famed 2-1/2 mile oval. Please note that proof of ownership will be required due to insurance regulations.

Those in attendance without Porsches will no doubt vie for those cramped little back seats at a rate never seen before in the free world. The evening will wind down with a 50's era (50's dress optional) awards banquet featuring a very special guest speaker.

Sunday starts with hawkers trying to unload boxes of their precious sow's ears (and greasy ones at that) at the Porsche-only swap meet. No doubt a fair number of parts will change hands and maybe a car or two.

Those wanting some true entertainment will then partake in a combined fall foliage tour and fun rally. The rally will test the Porsche trivia fans in the group along with would be olympians. It is not your normal type of rally, with minimal navigational skills required and no times stages. Just fun!

With a wave and final Auf Wiedersehen, all will be quiet until May, when once again Porsche will take to the track, this time exceeding the daring 50 mph recorded by the brave Porsche owners who will have paved the way in October of 1987!

Dreistaatenfest featured tour of Dreistaatenfest Report: On August 1 and 2, the historic city of Madison, Indiana played host to a select group of Porsche People from Indiana, Kentucky, and Ohio during the rebirth of this Tri-region event. Any credit for the success of this fun-filled weekend must go to the participants, and those from Indiana were Bob, Jackie, and Chris Axiom; Carl, Diane, Brooke and Matt Bohall; Karl Koons and Gina Skelton; Bob Snider; Chuck Langsenkamp; Jack and Patty Hollingsworth; Bob and Heather Breeden; and prospective member Dean Dobbins joined us for Sunday's activities.

After lunch Saturday, we were given a tour of the area (three hours worth) courtesy of Bob Snider. Bob chose roads that tested the car and the driver's ability no matter what speed you traveled. Following the tour, the wine and cheese at Scotella winery was timed just perfectly to satisfy the hungries until dinner at the Key West Shrimp House, which capped off a great day.

Sunday we met at the President Madison for coffee and doughnuts prior to some picture-taking. On our way to the show site next to Madison's Lanier Mansion we all stopped by the Mississippi Queen docked on the river. The people of Madison had a hard time choosing between all the Porsches and the Big Boat tied up on the river.

We then parked at the show site and while we shopped at some local shops and/or visited some of the historic homes, the three best (how could you choose?) Porsches were chosen by local Madison residents. The Breeden's 928, the Hollingsworth's 911 coupe, and a Kentucky 911 Targa owned by Paul and Maureen Elwyn were each awarded a bottle of wine from Scotella winery.

That ended a super weekend with the balance of Sunday being used for more shopping and sightseeing by many CIR people. Thanks to all who supported and participated in Dreistaatenfest this year and we hope to make it better next year!

The August meeting of the Board of Directors of the CIR was held at the home of Chuck Langsenkamp on Aug. 5, 1987. Those in attendance were Mark Thompson, Bob Axiom, Steve Jenkins, Jack Hollingsworth, Bob Snider, and Brett Johnson.

Mark had no significant national or zone news to discuss.

The garage sale must be postponed until next year due to different conflicts in dates.

Chuck reports the Winery Tour plans are moving along well.

Bob Axiom and Bob Snider gave a report on the Tri-Region event in Madison, Indiana. Everything went very well and next year should be even better.

Brett gave an update on the 356 Registry event in October. Volunteers from CIR would be welcome - especially those interested in working the rally.

The membership report indicated four new members.

The election committee for next year's officers and the Alton Dice Award committee are hard at work on nominations.

The next meeting of the Board will be at the home of Mark Thompson on Wed., Sept 9 at 7:00. All those wishing to attend, please call Mark to let him know.

Watch for details next month on the annual dinner
