News and Notes

Spring Brake was a huge success — a big thanks goes out to Jim and Henry for putting together a super weekend, along with the dedicated volunteers that made it all possible! A recap and honor roll is on page 11. If you attended and have pictures or would like to share your experience, please visit the website at <http://cir.pca.org> and post them through the members area for the enjoyment of your fellow members!

LOTS of F1 Tickets are still available, see page 9 for details.

CIR is seeking a secure place on the west side of Indy (preferably) for racers and DE students attending the CIR Thunder 2003 and the F1 race the following weekend to store their race trailers for the week between, September 21-29. CIR is trying to encourage out-of town racers and their families to stay in the area for the week and join us in the F1 activities, so we need someplace safe to store their trailers. Contact Henry Riley if you have something to offer at hriley@core.com or by phone at 812.377.9843 days or 812.579.5673 evenings.

Board Meeting schedule is changed to 2nd Tuesday of the month, so update your calendars...next meeting is Tuesday, June 10th, at the Oaken Barrel in Greenwood.

Member Participation Wanted!! Out of nearly 400 CIR members, less than 10% of you have been active participants in the events we've had so far. Please ... contact any board member on the previous page with your ideas on what you'd be interested in so we can plan better events and build up the CIR community!

Member Communications: We don't have everyone's email address...please contact Chris Langsenkamp at (765) 528-2792 or by email at membership@cirpca.org with your name, member number, and email address, or log on to the CIR website at <http://cir.pca.org> and make sure we have your current information. You're missing out on all kinds of stuff that may not make the CIRcular if we don't have your email address on file!

The Way It Was

Mike Robbins, Historian

TWENTY YEARS AGO

The May 1983 CIRcular recommended everyone meet at IN37 and I465 for a tour to French Lick and then a ride on the train operated by the Indiana Railroad Museum. I wonder if the group still runs those train trips. I know CIR ran it on another occasion.

TEN YEARS AGO

The May 1993 CIRcular listed a Fathers' Day brunch and Concours at the Garden On the Green at the Indianapolis Art Museum. As I remember, Judy and I and Bill Marsh and friend neglected to make reservations, so when we arrived, "there was no room at the inn".

AND MORE.....

About an hour ago Judy and I returned from Hershey PA and the giant Porsche Swap Meet. By the time you read this you may not remember, but we had a beautiful sunny day for the trip to Hershey on Friday. We also had a beautiful sunny day for the trip home on Sunday. But on Saturday, the day of the Swap Meet, it rained almost the entire day. We've attended this swap meet for probably 15 or more years and rain has often made an appearance. In the past, I've always gone with the intent of purchasing things that I felt I couldn't do without. This year was just the opposite...I went to sell things that I no longer need since selling the '58 Coupe plus get rid of excess inventory of parts from cars I stripped out over the years. The event is as much social as business....seeing Porsche friends from all over. Two friends from the Netherlands came by our space and we had a brief visit. We figured out a way to operate in the rain. Our Honda Odyssey van's rear door is hinged at the top so we opened it and draped a tarp over it to provide a small "room" at the rear of the van. I made a couple of posters listing the more important items I wanted to sell and it worked out pretty well. Of course it would have been a lot better if we'd been able to set up our tables and spread things out on display but in the circumstances we faced, we came out pretty well. Someone would ask about a such and such that I had listed and then I'd have to dig through the boxes and milk crates to find the item. The Hershey Swap Meet is held on the grounds of Hershey Park and it's almost mandatory that after the swap meet, you go to the Hershey Chocolate Outlet Store and load up on things for the sweet tooth. Ironically, the prices are usually higher than you pay at the stores at home. One friend told us that his wife always reminded him to bring her some chocolate goodies. After he learned that the pricing was at a premium, he stopped at a grocery or other on the way home and got the same stuff. She was always impressed with his remembrances although she didn't know the source. There are three reasonably close swap meets coming up in June and July: Tweeks in Effingham, IL, Stoddard's near Cleveland and at the Kruse Museum in Auburn IN. I hope I can really move a lot more of the things from the basement and garage shelves at those events. One problem I have is finding time to clean things so they will be more presentable and hopefully bring higher prices.

Will these pages be cited ten or twenty years from now? Will I really be rid of all of the excess parts by then? Stick around!

CIR Spring Brake Recap

James Scarbrough

Clear skies and mild weather welcomed 45 Central Indiana Porsche Club members to April 26-27 2003 Spring Brake Driver Education at Putnam Park.

Thirty-two other Porsche club members represented by 11 different surrounding Porsche Club regions made the trek to the driver ed friendly 1.8 mile 10 turn Putnam Park Road Course. Another 32 non Porsche club members rounded out the field of 109 cars ranging from a VW Golf diesel to an American Lemans Prototype Ferrari 333SP.

Special thanks to CIR member volunteers Vickie Langsenkamp - Registration, Jason Collins - PA/Steward, Veronica Burnett - Photographer and Geoff Kapke - Grid. These folks put in long hours over the weekend so that everyone else could have fun.

When Henry Riley and I cooked up the idea for this event in 2001 (on our way to a school at Mid Ohio) we wanted to create another venue for club members to get involved with CIR and have some fun. Judging from the number of "unwipeable" smiles and positive feedback received we expect to be sold out next year as well.

Drivers with less than 12 days of track experience were paired with Porsche club instructors to learn the finer points of high performance driving. Some random comments from our students:

"Instructor was very positive and helpful with regard to learning the line, braking and shifting"

"It was nice to have an instructor that enjoys teaching, very helpful with any question I had"

"Great encouragement from my instructor. Had no idea how late and hard I could brake"

"Instructor was very knowledgeable and relayed information very well"

"Instructor got very excited when I nailed a turn..... very refreshing"

"Instructor did make this weekend an awesome time"

"Great Fun"

Mark your calendars for the third annual event April 24-25, 2004. Registration for CIR members will start next January, while non-region member registration will start in February. Lets keep increasing that CIR participation, after all this is YOUR club!
